

Caring for Someone: A Past-Tense Story

PAGE 1 / 2

A2 Grammar and Email Practice | Class 1D

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

PAST-TENSE TOOLBOX

Useful verbs: have -> had | give -> gave | make -> made | take -> took | feel -> felt

Regular verbs: help -> helped | check -> checked | call -> called | stay -> stayed

Story order: First, ... Then, ... After that, ... Finally, ...

Part A - Circle the correct past-tense verb. (5 marks)

- 1 Last Saturday, my brother ____ a fever.
☐ A. has ☐ B. had ☐ C. have

- 2 I ____ him a glass of water.
☐ A. give ☐ B. gave ☐ C. giving

- 3 My mother ____ some warm soup.
☐ A. made ☐ B. make ☐ C. makes

- 4 He ____ his medicine after dinner.
☐ A. take ☐ B. took ☐ C. takes

- 5 After some rest, he ____ better.
☐ A. feels ☐ B. feel ☐ C. felt

Part B - Turn each note into a complete past-tense sentence. (5 marks)

- 6 Last Sunday, / Aina / have / a fever 1 mark

- 7 First, / I / check / her temperature 1 mark

- 8 Then, / I / give / her water / and / make / soup 2 marks

- 9 Finally, / she / feel / better 1 mark

Part C - Plan your email. Notes are enough; complete sentences are not needed.

Who did you care for? _____

What was wrong? _____

What two things did you do? _____

How did the person feel afterwards? _____

A2 Grammar and Email Practice | Class 1D

Your friend, Aina, wants to hear about a time you cared for someone. She asks:

- Write an email of 80-100 words. You may use a real or imagined experience. Use at least 5 simple-past verbs and 2 story-order words.

To: Aina Subject:

Checklist: answer both questions | 5 past verbs | 2 order words | 80-100 words

Helpful ending: The person felt _____ afterwards. I felt _____ because _____.